CANADA TOUR FROM VANCOUVER TO VICTORIA AND THE ROCKIES

Starting from the bustling and modern Vancouver, this route goes through Western Canada, between the coast and the Rocky Mountains, passing from the fertile and "Mediterranean" Okanagan region to finally arrive to the parks of rocks. The lakes and glaciers of these parks will fascinate you with their fantastic colors and breathtaking views.

The extraordinary wildlife that is undisturbed and protected here, will be easily observable in this pristine environment and will surprise you: among the many animals you can spot grizzly bears, wolves, and brown deer, moose and caribou.

Returning to the coast, and more specifically in Victoria, on Vancouver Island, you will see the great cetaceans, whales and killer whales during an unforgettable excursion by super-raft through the waters of Haro Strait and the Strait of Juan de Fuca.

Period: from June to September.

Duration: 9 days

Physical difficulty: light

Category: light exploration (for everyone, also for families)
