

BRITISH COLUMBIA TOUR EXPLORING VANCOUVER & VANCOUVER ISLAND

This itinerary focuses on the best of nature of the splendid coast of British Columbia. Goal of this exploration: Vancouver Island, the most beautiful island in North America, recognized as the Top North America Island by Condè Nast Traveller. As big as two regions of Italy, it deserves this international renown for the beauty and variety of its places and almost incomparable scenarios of its nature. Victoria, the current capital of British Columbia, is situated on the island too.

Vancouver Island boasts numerous exclusive and beautifully located resorts between its coasts, overlooking the beautiful Sounds and its most beautiful parks, such as Pacific Rim and Strathcona Park. In these resorts you have an opportunity to spend your holidays in complete relaxation in elegant structures built with precious woods and scented with SPA of the highest level. You can also take full advantage of the wonder of those places by venturing into special tours to discover a unique and unspoilt nature between Vancouver Island and the coast of British Columbia, particularly in the area of lower Great Bear Rainforest. This beautiful area is home to fascinating creatures as grizzly bears, bears "albinos" Kermode, giant moose or 3 species of whales and beautiful killer whales, sea lions and seals. In addition, the tree species in this park are among the rarest in the world and the trees here often reach a height of 30 storeys and an age of more than 1500 years.
